AMVETS
A recent executive committee meeting was held at the home of newly elected post commander, Harold Northrup. Approval of appointed officers was discussed and made. Committees were appointed for the coming year.

Plans for fund raising were made and post activities charted. The annual membership drive was started and it is hoped that all eligible veterans take advantage of the opportunity to join with this fast growing veteran organization. Each year we enjoy increased membership which helps us to carry on our large program for the welfare of brother veterans.

The commanders banquet will be held Saturday, Mar. 19, at Helderberg Lodge. Seating will be at 6:45 and dinner promptly at 7 p. m. Due to the large crowd expected please make your reservations early by contacting Francis Warner or Russell Nashols.

The monthly meeting will be held Monday, Feb. 28, at the Berne fire house at 8 p. m. State Commander John A. Lash, Jr., will install the newly elected officers. All members are requested to wear AMVETS hats.

COMMUNITY NOTES
The all day meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Lutheran church will be held on Thursday, Mar. 3, with Mrs. Steve Kornjath, Leaders, Mrs. Hubert Miller and Mrs. Omer Becker. Topic, "The Bible and Missions."

FRANK HOCHSTRASSER
Frank Hochstrasser, one of the oldest residents of the Town of Berne, died on Feb. 19 at his home. Mr. Hochstrasser was a man who believed in his God and will always be remembered for his faithful teaching in the Sunday school.

He is survived by two children, Mrs. John Haverly, Pittsfield, Mass., and Paul Hochstrasser of Berne, and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

MRS. LAURA S. WILLSEY
The funeral of Mrs. Laura Seabury Willsey was held from the West Berne Reformed church yesterday (Feb. 24).

Mrs. Willsey had the misfortune to fall one year ago, breaking her leg, from which she never recovered. Since the death of her husband, William N. Willsey in 1933, she had made her home on the Lee Seabury farm and with her granddaughter, Mrs. Earl Irons, Jr.

Mrs. Willsey passed away at the Nash Nursing Home in Knox, where she had been for some time, since they were unable to give her the proper care at home. She was in her 86th year and will be greatly missed by her many friends. She was a staunch member of the West Berne Reformed church and attended as long as she was able. She is survived by her son, Mr. D. Willsey; two granddaughters, Mrs. Janis Irons and Morris Willsey, and one great-grandchild.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to extend my appreciation and thanks for the many gifts, flowers and gifts sent me while in the hospital and after returning home.
